

STYLE FILE

And the Emmy Goes To...

Immediately upon hearing about the new Emmy bag from Elie Tahari, we knew we had to feature it ASAP. After all, everyone here at the office is obsessed with the bag's muse, Emmy Rossum, who has been spotted all over town shooting scenes for the Chicago-based Showtime series Shameless. And the bag—which will be available this month—is just as chic as the starlet. Available in four different styles, the Emmy is made with materials such as soft glove leather, natural raffia and metallic leather with contrast stitching. At Neiman Marcus, Saks Fifth Avenue and Bloomingdale's, $398-$798. —KH

GIRL POWER We're loving the new Emmy bag from Elie Tahari.

BRIGITTE COOPER

River North, co-owner, faerie-tails.com
"It's about time these Chicago clubs get creative! I just hope my Faerie Tail earrings don't catch on fire."

SHANNON LERSCH

Lakeview, model and sports reporter
"Is fire dancing a sport? What do I have to do to get the exclusive?"

EMILY HUTCHINS

South Loop, owner, On Your Mark Coaching and Training
Hey Emily: Aren't you freezing? "Nothing a little Absolut can't warm up."

RYAN POLI

Old Town, executive chef, Perennial
"Even though we've been dating for a while, you realize I'm a big deal, right?"

LAUREN BENSON

River North, IT sales
"Can she teach me how to do that? I would love a lesson."

EDDIE LOU

River North, owner of Sebastien Grey Custom Clothiers and co-founder of Us Empowered
"I wonder if the twirling flames will hypnotize these girls."

KELLI ZINK

Gold Coast, host of celebTV.com
"Ice Bar—genius idea—it's the perfect excuse to cuddle with the cute guy next to me!"

VOYEUR

Raising the Roof

Friday, 6:30PM It was a seasonably cold evening on what is ordinarily only a seasonal summer destination. Vertigo Sky Lounge on the 26th floor of the Dana Hotel relaunched its popular rooftop as the Fire and Ice Winter Patio. In between grabbing Fire Shots (think flaming Dr. Pepper) from the massive Ice Bar, guests—wrapped in faux fur blankets and plush robes—huddled for warmth around the crystalized fire pits. And if the appeal of the city's only ice bar wasn't enough, exotic flame spitters got everyone's mind off of the chilly temps. —Rebecca Taras

...CELEB SPOTTING CONTINUED of New York Jill Zarin joined the duo. After the Bears-Packers showdown, a few players including Greg Olsen and J'Marcus Webb stopped by Hub 51. Milwaukee Bucks player Jon Brockman also dined at the Hubbard St. eatery. Former Cubs player Ernie Banks grabbing a bite in Cafe Spiaggia's bar with a friend. Later that evening, former Chicago Fire team member Brian McBride and his wife enjoyed dinner at the same restaurant. Chicago Bears players Chester Taylor and Devin CONTINUED...